

Weekend in Oxford

It has been decided (over many a pint of 1420) to organise a Society visit to Oxford this year, to make a "pilgrimage" round the bits and pieces of the town which have some relevance to the Society.

DETAILS

Date Saturday, 14th September, 1974

Place Meet at the Nitre Pub, Oxford, at 2:00 p. m. (to wit closing time !)
Make your own transport arrangements.

Accommodation Bed and Breakfast. We will be collecting a list of addresses for the benefit of members interested. S. A. E. please, but not until we ask for them in the Bulletin.

Provisional list of Notable Places

Merton College

Exeter College (William Morris tapestry)

English Faculty Library (Eust of Tolkien)

Museum House (Original Map of Middle-earth on parchment)

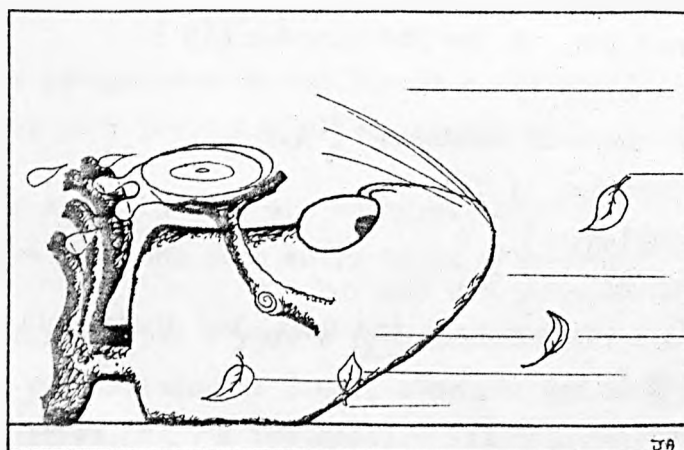

Bodleian Library ("Marnia")

St. Cross Church (Grave of C. S. Lewis)

Wolvercote Church (Grave of Tolkien)

Eagle and Child Pub (Bird and Baby)

More details will be included in the Bulletin nearer the date.

Ent-draught